

University Women To Organize

A meeting will be held in Room 51 of Placer College on November 16, at 7:30 p.m., for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of the American Association of University Women.

The state president, Mrs. Forster R. Smith of Palo Alto, and the state vice-president, Mrs. Ruth C. Fox of San Mateo, will be present at the meeting.

Mrs. Lois Nelson, who has been instrumental in calling the gathering, states that plans will be outlined at a preliminary afternoon session, to be attended by the state officers and Mrs. Elma Young, Mrs. Harold Chastain, Mrs. Bob Lawrence, and Mrs. Katherine Lee.

About forty women have expressed an interest in the association.

Membership requirements are an approved degree in general education from a college or university of first rate standing.

All women eligible and interested are invited to attend the meeting.
