

82 A.A.U.W. Charter Members

Eighty-two charter members were announced by Mrs. Lois Nelson, membership chairman, at the regular meeting of the Auburn Branch of the American Association of University Women, Tuesday, February 1. Some seventy members were present in the dance room of the Agard Street Gym to sign the constitution. Any absent charter member may sign at the next meeting, or with Mrs. Nelson.

Mrs. Howard G. Lee, president, presided at the brief business session at 7:30, and at 8:00 presented Mr. Robbins Skewes-Cox, graduate student in political science, at the University of California, Berkeley. Mr. Skewes-Cox spoke concisely and convincingly on the subject, "One World or None", and answered questions at the close of the talk. He stressed the fact that peace begins in the minds of men and comes only when we are willing to pay the price, which is government. United Nations is a first step in this direction, but it is a confederation, not a government.

Following the program, light refreshments were served by Miss Dorothy McBride, Miss Wilma June Vose, Mrs. Carroll Bond, Mrs. Bruce Denison, and Mrs. Frances Kinsinger, under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. W. Lawrence.

New chairmen were announced by Mrs. Lee as follows: Fellowship, Mrs. Buschke, who is also taking reservations for the AAUW workshop at Stockton, February 19; General Section Coordinator, Miss Leona Field; and Art Section, Mrs. Harold E. Chastain.

Seven study groups have been organized and are now in operation, meeting regularly. Book section meets Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 8:00 p.m. with Mrs. Florence Lewis, Brook Road. Favorite and unusual cookbooks will be exhibited.

Social Studies will be organized by Louise Langenbach, Friday, Feb. 11 at 7:30 at her home, 357 Boardman. A survey of local history has been suggested as a project for this group, but decision will be made Friday.

Crafts will meet with Mrs. W. F. Keeney at 1141 High St., at 8:00, Monday, Feb. 14.

An Arts section combining music, drama, and fine art will have an organizational meeting under Mrs. Gina Ackers, Monday, Feb. 21, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. H. E. Chastain, 154 Oakwood Drive.

Hooked rugs meet on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 7:30 in room 54, Placer College, with Miss Kathro Frank, acting chairman.

International relations under the leadership of Mrs. Krakow, will meet normally on the fourth Tuesday at 7:30, but will postpone the next session until Tuesday, March 8, when they will meet at the home of Mrs. Bruce Denison, 286 Terrace St.

The next general club program will be an open meeting with Business and Professional Women's Club and will feature a panel discussion on the so-called equal right amendment, whereby it is proposed to abolish restrictions between women and men in employment. National headquarters of AAUW disapproves and that of BPWC favors this bill. The date will be announced later, but the meeting will be held in the Little Theatre.

Source: Auburn Journal, 3/3/1949, Section 1