ADVANCING
EQUITY FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS THROUGH ADVOCACY,

LETTER FROM OUR PRESIDENT

We strive to become a diverse and inclusive branch. To this end, I will ask the Board to create a standing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee at our November 2 meeting. The committee will be responsible for planning initiatives to recruit and retain a diverse membership.

What does DEI encompass? Diversity means variety and recognizing that what makes us different and unique is important. Equity is about everyone having equal access to what they need to be successful. Inclusion means having an environment where people feel supported, welcomed, respected, and valued.

With Board approval regarding the committee, we will be seeking members who have an interest and passion to move our DEI initiative forward. We will be sending out an email to recruit committee members after the November meeting.

And may you have a wonderful Thanksgiving – whether it includes turkey or not.

Sandra Niemi Scott

Bridget Powers: Owner and President of JxB Properties, LLC

Bridget also has a long history with the building industry. In 2003 – 2004 she served on the Building Industry Association's (BIA) Board of Directors and was President of the BIA Sales and Marketing Council (SMC). She has served as Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary of the BIA SMC Sales and Marketing Council and Co-Chair of the SMC MAME Merchandising and Marketing Awards.

Q: What is one lesson learned that's unique to being a woman leader?

The advice I would give is to never give up. When you feel the most pressure take a break, talk it over with a mentor or peer and then take action to be the best you can be. Honesty and Integrity are very important; never settle for less than you give. Ask questions and always gain more knowledge, stay informed on your industry and take leadership roles in the industry and always teach other women to be leaders as well.

Q. What advice would you give aspiring female executives?

To the aspiring female executives, it takes a team to get to the top. Don't step on anyone on your way up. Be true and authentic to yourself and others. Be a leader by teaching your knowledge to others so they can follow in your footsteps. It will bring you great joy in your career.

Q. Name a woman who has inspired you?

I consider Brandee Ambrosia to be one of my great inspirations. She never gives up, never takes no for an answer, and gets the job done all while having the best time of her life and doing those things we find distasteful exceptionally well. She inspires me to be a better person. She not only is a smart businesswoman but gives back to her community on a daily basis. Her philanthropic caring and giving is what puts a smile on my face as I watch her navigate through needing to get the job done and have others follow in her footsteps.

NEW MEMBER RECEPTION

New Member Reception AAUW Auburn

On September 4th, 2021 we had a new member gathering at Barbara's home. We met in the gazebo in her beautiful garden. The setting was lovely and the food provided by Barbara and Sharon was delicious.

The day started smoky and we were undecided whether to meet, but the day cleared enough to proceed. Guests were provided masks and hand sanitizer and encouraged to be comfortable.

Six seasoned members and four new members attended. Actually three new members and the fourth joined that day. We had delightful conversations as we introduced ourselves and talked about aspects of our branch, handed out the new directories and enjoyed light refreshments.

As of this time, we have eight new members from the past two years and we are excited they have joined our AAUW branch as all are enthusiastic, smart and fun women. In the directory they are highlighted and our hope is all of you will welcome them and make new friends.

Please welcome Celeste Boggs, Gayle Crossley, Mary Menconi, Julann Brown, Valerie Lease, Patty Pieropan Dong, Anne Ruud and Carol Roedden.

A graduate of Boston University with a BFA in Painting, she has also studied at Boston State College and Suffolk University. Painting trips to Mexico, Italy, Portugal, and France have provided rich visual imagery. Disappearing relics are a recurring theme throughout much of her work, capturing abandoned buildings and cars, as nature takes them over. A CHANCE TO BETTER KNOW OUR MEMBERS

This month we asked Diane Fishburn to tell us about herself as we love to better get to know our members.

I am originally from Los Angeles (yes, the actual City of Los Angeles). I went to UCLA and UCLA Law School but moved to Sacramento right after I took the Bar in 1980. I worked for the State of California for 10 years before joining a small law firm in downtown Sacramento.

Diane in 1980 when she took the Bar

I was married, had twin daughters Claire and Keeley, and then divorced when they were 4. I was a single parent for the rest of their growing up years. When I look back, I am not sure how I did it all with a full-time legal career, but I am now blessed with wonderful grown-up daughters who are married with families of their own. Four grandsons (two from each daughter) – one born every year from 2015 through 2018 – that was a busy time for a new grandma !

For most of my legal career, I focused on campaign finance, elections, public ethics, and administrative law with an emphasis on providing advice and representation to a wide variety of clients including individuals, nonprofit organizations, unions, candidates and officeholders, businesses and public entities. I was fortunate to have found a firm and partners with a shared commitment to do the “right thing” even when it was difficult or unprofitable.

I joined the AAUW Auburn Branch in 2011 shortly after I moved to Meadow Vista from Sacramento with my partner Rick Moseley. I did not know anyone in the Branch, but I was familiar with AAUW’s mission to support girls and women in their educational and professional pursuits.

A CHANCE TO BETTER KNOW OUR MEMBERS

In addition, my grandmother Jeanne Stoddard Roduner had been a long-time member of the Merced Branch, serving as its President and also as an officer of the state AAUW. She was the first woman elected to the Merced City Council. She had an enormous influence on me. I am certain she would have run for Governor if she had been a man.

At first, my branch activities were limited to participating in the Trivia Bee and attending meetings when I could since I was still a busy lawyer. After I retired in October, 2017, I got more involved through the hiking group, working in the polls, and serving on the Scholarship Committee.

My Trivia Bee team with my daughter Claire Jones and her best friend Fran Corti won in 2019, and we are looking forward to defending our championship at the 2022 Trivia Bee!

In retirement, I have enjoyed many activities primarily based on my interests in California history, genealogy, sewing and the outdoors. I am a County museum docent and a member of the Placer County Genealogical Society. I play mah jongg with a group which has been playing together for about 15 years.

My favorite place in the world is Yosemite; my great-grandfather owned a stagecoach line which took tourists from Merced to Yosemite. My most recent visit to Yosemite was earlier this month, and I was accompanied by my niece, the 6th generation of our family to visit Yosemite.

I have been impressed with our Branch members and their commitment to increasing opportunities for girls and women in our area through Tech Trek, Scholarships and other activities. I look forward to being part of these efforts for many years to come.

A VISIT TO WOMEN'S RIGHTS NATIONAL HISTORIC PARK IN SENECA FALLS, NEW YORK By Susan Ruston

The bad news about me and the tons of information about the women involved in Women's Rights also turns out to be good news. We didn't see everything we wanted to see, even in a day. Several places were closed, because we got there on a weekend.

It's bad news because I missed it. It's good news because, although Seneca Falls is a very small town, it includes a great many locations, parks, museums and statues and a lot of information about the incredibly strong, persistent women who pushed for equal rights and suffrage for women... at a time when the concepts were considered ludicrous and appalling.

The town caters to people who throng to this place. In windy, cold, rainy mid-October? Well, they throng not so much, but we did see several visitors at each location we visited who were not deterred by the weather or time of year.

Even better, the town is clearly enthusiastic about its participation in women's history.

Two major items that give me joy: Seneca Falls is home to a lock on the Erie Canal, which became operational in 1825. So what? So this: immediately the river made movement easier between towns on the river. It was easier to spread news east and west. It became easier to spread the ideas of women's rights and women's suffrage. Tell one person, who tells ten more, who each tell ten more... and you have a revolution!

The second: The Women's Rights Convention, held in 1848. One of the earth-shaking items of this event: Elizabeth Cady Stanton's "Declaration of Sentiments," presented to an enthusiastic crowd of 300, mostly women. She based it on the seven-decades old Declaration of Independence, stating that "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that men and women are created equal; that they are endowed with by their creator with certain inalienable rights; that among them are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Following this, she points out how women had been denied independence, the right to vote, to own property, to work, to earn their own money – and nine other rights “Which are given to the most ignorant and degraded men.” To men... but not to women.

This Convention, the women’s “Declaration of Sentiments” and the demand for the right to vote were, of course, considered revolutionary and radical. However, men had these rights. Why not women? It seemed so sensible, so reasonable. The astonishing part is that most of the women (and 32 men) who signed their names supporting this Declaration would never see the results of their energy and work. They held the Convention 72 years after Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence; Congress would not ratify the 19th amendment for another 72 years.

(Mural at the Women's Rights National Historical Park, celebrating the Declaration of Sentiments.)

Seneca Falls celebrates the energy of the women who started the idea of equality for women, which included suffrage. Now we tend to take women’s suffrage for granted. After all, if you want to vote, you do. Simple, right? Of course, simple. But it took so long to happen that only one woman who signed the Declaration of Sentiments in 1848 was alive when 1920 rolled around and it became legal for women to vote in the United States. And she couldn’t, because she was ill and 90 years old.

This place gave me goosebumps. Still does. It’s a wonderful celebration of the beginning of a revolution.

State of California Vote by Mail Now Permanent

On September 27, 2021, Governor Newsom signed into law Assembly Bill 37, introduced by Assemblyman Marc Berman, establishing vote-by-mail as the voting process for all future California State elections. All registered voters will receive their ballots by mail. County election offices will be authorized to begin counting mail-in-ballots prior to the day of election. Assembly Bill 37 allows election officials to accept mail-in-ballots postmarked prior to close of polls on Election Day, and counted, during a seven day period after the date of election.

National AAUW Champions Bills in Congress

Part of your AAUW dues support major legislation in Congress. Two bills of current interest relate to Women's Health and to Title IX.

Reproductive rights are at serious risk in our country now. The Women's Health Protection Act, (H.R. 3755), sponsored by Rep. Judy Chu (CA-2), has passed the House and is on the Senate legislative calendar. This urgent bill would protect abortion access.

Another bill, The Patsy Mink and Louise Slaughter Gender Equity in Education Act (GEEA), (H.R. 4097), sponsored by Rep. Doris Matsui (CA-6) includes provisions for more resources, training, and technical assistance to support full implementation of Title IX.

Also, AAUW staff are in close contact with Miguel Cardona, the new Secretary of Education, to reverse egregious Title IX policy changes made by Betty DeVos, the previous Secretary.
